

A stunning aerial walkway across the treetops of the wild Adirondack forest, Wild Walk is a unique experience that will take you to new heights of understanding and appreciation of nature!

THURSDAY, JUNE 4: THE MIRACLE ON ICE - LAKE PLACID, NY

Your journey begins into these famous mountains with a brief boat tour on Fourth Lake out of Old Forge, then on to Lake Placid, sight of the 1980 Olympics and The Miracle on Ice. Reminisce as we visit the Olympic Museum and the arena where the miracle happened.

FRIDAY, JUNE 5: THE WILD CENTER - TUPPER LAKE

Visit the Adirondacks newest and most famous museum in Tupper Lake - sight of the soft adventure, the Wild Walk. This stunning aerial walkway, at the top of 1,000 feet of bridges, is accessible for people of all ages. Besides the walk, the museum contains 34,000 feet of interactive exhibits, scores of live animals you can see up close, and a giant interactive sphere called Planet Adirondack.
