

Mackinac Island & Michigan's Upper Peninsula

DARIEN SENIORS TUESDAY - FRIDAY, SEPT. 8-11, 2020

Grand Hotel on Mackinac Island

Beautiful Mackinac Island is suspended in a forgotten, more innocent time - a living Victorian village where transportation is limited to horse & buggy, bicycle, or on foot; motorized vehicles have been prohibited on the island since 1898.

Sightseeing will include a horse-drawn carriage tour of the island, Arch Rock, Fort Mackinac, Skull Cave, Governor's Mansion, and the Avenue of Flags.

Your group will also enjoy a special exquisite buffet luncheon at the legendary Grand Hotel and there will also be time for shopping.

Explore the majesty of Michigan's Upper Peninsula, from the roaring waters of Tahquamenon Falls to the mighty freighters in the Soo Locks. Hear ghostly tales of sunken ships in mighty Lake Superior and see the recovered bronze bell of the Edmund Fitzgerald.
