

Joie de Vivre . . . A Taste of France

An 8-day / 7-night tour celebrating the food, wine, and spirit of Francaise!

Paris, the 'City of Light', quite possibly the most romantic place in the world

Lyon, the 'Culinary Capital of France', quite possibly the most delicious place in the world

Provence, quite possibly the most beautiful place in the world

$4,195 – $3,695 per person

Paris

Enjoy an introductory city tour, a wine tasting lesson, a gourmet Bistro dinner, a guided tour of the Parisian patisseries in the Marais neighborhood (tastings included of course), and an open air market tour combined with a cooking class, where you will shop for seasonal ingredients and incorporate them into your 3-course creation!! You will also have an afternoon for shopping and/or activities of personal interest.

Sample breads, cheeses, sausages, fruits, vegetables and wines on a tasting tour of the famous market Les Halles de Lyon, and experience a 5-star evening of gourmet cuisine at the award-winning, Michelin-starred Chef Paul Bocuse's, L'Abbaye de Collonges. Also enjoy the high-speed TGV train to Lyon and a visit to Lyon's Old City!

Lyon

Provence

A visit to a lavender farm, a Rhone River valley winery tour & tasting, medieval villages, and Roman history fill your day traveling from Lyon to Avignon, where you will have a day to choose how to spend your time (from numerous options!) and enjoy a true Provincial farewell feast at a 16th century farm (still a working goat farm!) on a 2,000 acre estate located on a hilltop in the Luberon mountains.

Tour Includes:

Round trip airfare, 6-nights in 3-star hotel accommodations (double occupancy), TGV from Paris to Lyon, 4 dinners (one Paris Bistro, one self-prepared, one 5-star meal in Lyon, and one provincial farm dinner in Provence), a patisserie tour, two market tours, one cooking class, two wine tastings (one with lesson), a visit to a lavender farm, guided tours of Paris, Lyon, and Provence, and services of a full time tour manager/guide.
