Step back in time and enjoy fall foliage aboard the last operating steam train excursion in New York State! We are an authentic operating short line railroad. We hold the distinction of being one of the last "common carriers", running freight and passenger trains weekly. Welcome aboard the train to yesterday... As you enter the historic station, you are surrounded by the history of railroading in America featuring exhibits and nostalgic original photographs. With an "all aboard," the whistle blows, and the whoosh of the air brakes releasing can be heard. The engineer gets the train up to speed and you are on your way! Enjoy yourself listening to the click of the rails and the steam whistle echoing off the rural hillsides on this little journey into the past. May it revive pleasant memories of by-gone days!
